WELCOME!

After the exceptionally busy show last we have moved up to three days this year. Whether that was the right decision or not, time will tell, and as always we would appreciate your feedback and thoughts.

We are potentially facing a tough winter ahead with the hike in fuel costs and inflation seeing all our costs going up and not least anything equine related, so it is pleasing to see most classes well supported with a totally different atmosphere in the showing world to this time last year when we all just so very grateful to back out again after Covid.

We are very grateful to all who have very generously sponsored classes, championships or a brick in our new puissance wall, and if any sponsor would like to award the rosettes please make yourselves known to the stewards in the relevant rings.

Once again we thank all the shows that have hosted our qualifiers, from all over Scotland from Caithness all the way down to the borders, and indeed just over the border in both Cumbria and Northumberland. With more shows on board, the qualification placing were reduced to first place only at most shows, making it just a little bit harder to qualify, but many still managed, and we are delighted so many of you are joining us this weekend.

As always we welcome a carefully selected panel of judges, and we are delighted to welcome back two judges from our very first Caledonian Showing Championship seven years ago, and I think they will see a huge difference to show from then to now.

A busy weekend including our new Puissance classes and hosting the TSR Scottish Finals, we are excited to see who will be crowned as our Supreme of Show on Sunday evening where they will, as in the past four years, win a bespoke portrait by artist Dawn Thornton.

So bring on the party, the glitter, the top hats and the music, and have a fabulous show!
